

I urge you not to change AIR 1 to a FM Translator. This is the only radio station that my children and I can listen to and not worry about them hearing inappropriate language. It is a listener supported station, changing it to a LPFM station will take away the type of positive music this world and community needs. Thank you.